Seniors 4v4 Tournament

16th July 2017, Woking College

For the first time in club history, every squad from the Woking Blackhawk Senior Section was represented on court at the same time.

The Blackhawks put on a club 4v4 competition on Sunday, with each team consisting of players from the different Blackhawk squads. A Flyer, a Lady, a Hunter, Thunder Air and Thunder Bolt. 8 teams played in 2 groups, battling for a spot in the playoffs and eventually the finals.

"I thought that tournament seemed to be a great success," said club chairman Iain Taylor, who took in some of the action from courtside. "Well supported across the squads."

Group A was narrowly won by Team Athens, with London coming in 2nd despite being even with Athens on points. Group B was less close – Paris took it over Rome by a single point. These were the 4 teams that would have a chance for glory in the playoffs.

The winners - Team Paris

London avenged their scoreless game to win 3rd place over Athens, while Rome and Paris met in the finals. Paris leapt out to an early lead, but some hot shooting from Rome looked like it might change the course of the game. It was not to be, as a couple of dagger 3-point shots and scores at the rim sealed the victory and the championship for team Paris.

Devon James from team Paris took home finals MVP honours.

"I am really pleased with how the day went," said head of senior basketball Rick Lansdell. "The players really embraced it from the word go. Huge thanks go to all the volunteers that made the day work. Without them, it simply would not." But before the playoffs began, players took part in an impromptu 3-point shootout. Forwards and guards alike took part, shooting from every angle outside the arc. The best 2 scores faced off at the end, with James Grinham taking the win on his very last shot!

Playoff time. Team Paris decimated their opponent in the first playoff result, holding London scoreless on their way to securing their finals spot. Meanwhile Athens and Rome battled it out to the very end, with team Rome sinking a last second bucket to steal victory.

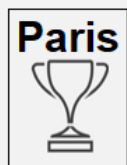

With the finals set, the bottom teams from each group squared off to avoid the dreaded wooden spoon award. Team Berlin came back from behind to beat team Budapest and managed to dodge the last place medal. Madrid bested Lisbon to put them in 5th place for the day.
